

Health, Safety & Welfare Policy

Hannaman Material Handling Limited is committed to Health & Safety and therefore as a result, expects all of its staff and stakeholders to share this commitment by complying with all Company Policies and Procedures and understand that they too have legal and moral obligations to themselves and to one another.

The Board of Directors and Management team will ensure, so far as it is reasonably practicable, that the health, safety and well being of all persons who may be affected by our activities by;

- ✓ Consulting with and involving our staff, partners, customers, visitors and contractors in matters relating to their own health and safety.
- ✓ Providing adequate and appropriate facilities and arrangements for welfare at work in addition to managing and maintaining our workplaces, grounds and facilities so that they are safe and that risks to health are controlled.
- ✓ Providing, managing and maintaining plant and work equipment so that it is safe and that risk hazardous to health are controlled.
- ✓ Identifying hazards and conducting formal risk assessments when appropriate in order to minimise the risk for all activities undertaken by the business.
- ✓ Ensuring that control measures, systems of work and emergency procedures are in place, effective, properly managed, monitored, controlled and maintained.
- ✓ Providing information, instruction, training and supervision at all levels necessary to ensure that all persons employed by the Company are competent to supervise or undertake their work activities and are aware of any related hazards and the measures to be taken to protect against them, and giving adequate information on relevant hazards to any persons whose health and safety might be affected by them.
- ✓ Keeping up to date with best practice and ensuring continual improvement in relation to Health and Safety whilst complying with all relevant legislation and authoritative guidance.

Hannaman Material Handling Limited undertake to continually review and develop our safety management systems, with the aim of conducting our activities in a manner which does not affect the health, safety or wellbeing of any staff, visitors, contractors and other employers or members of the public. The Board of Directors and Management team is committed to this Policy and to the implementation and maintenance of the highest standards of health, safety and welfare across the business. We expect every member of Hannaman's to share this commitment and to work together to achieve it.

Steve Downey
Managing Director
04 January 2018